This copy of the original documents was made for me a.m. 10/17/69, when the positive transparencies had not come back from processing. The last two pages back up. They are a single sheet. The tiniest part of the bottom of the second did not fit on the machine. This discloses suppression of the approval and verification of the White House physician, including of the burning of the evidence and the fact of a back, not neck, wound.
